AMENDMENT

Please enter the following amendments. A marked-up version of these amendments is attached hereto as Appendix A.

In the Written Description

Please amend the paragraph spanning page 8, line 27 to page 9, line 2 to include omitted reference numeral 25 shown in Figure 3 as follows.

In one embodiment, vibratory means 24 includes an eccentric motor which rotates an off center weight 25 attached thereto. One motor which may be used for creating the vibration is a Jinglong Co. model OTL-6CL or equivalent. The OTL-6CL model is generally a 1.3V DC motor. However, any motor suitable for creating vibration that has a small enough size and can be powered by a battery the size of an AA battery or the like could be
